

Past simple (Simple past) regular verbs

L. Comp. Israel Ortega Ortiz

Colegio Anáhuac

Inglés

Past simple regular verbs

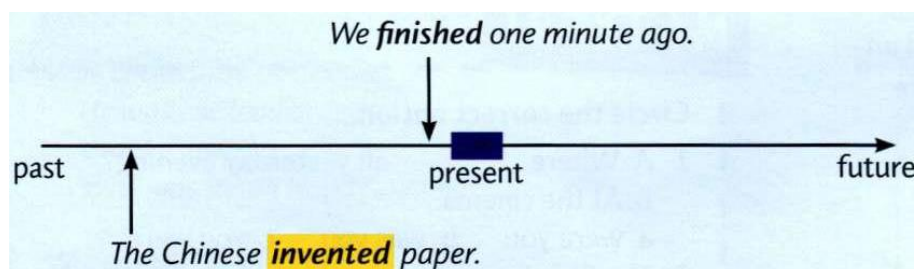

1. Use the past simple for past actions, states and general truths.

I phoned Julia yesterday.

Did you stay at the party long last night?

Once people didn't believe the world was round.

2. The past time could be recent or distant.

3. Add -ed to make the past simple (regular for all persons). Use did not and the infinitive without to to make the negative and use did to make a question. We usually say and write didn't instead of did not in informal situations, e.g. an email to friend.

	statement ✓	negative ✕
I / You / He / She / It / We / They	started	did not (didn't) start

question?	short answer
Did / you / he / she / it / we / they start?	Yes, (I) did .
	No, (he) did not (didn't) .

4. Past time expressions e.g. yesterday, last (night / week / year), (a few minutes / two months / 10 years) ago, are sometimes used with the past simple.

She didn't arrive yesterday.

Did you clean the car last weekend?

Colombus discovered America 500 years ago.

Spelling

When the ends in -e, add -d.

die → died

love → loved

When a verb ends in consonant (b, t, m, etc.) and -y, delete the -y and add -ied.

copy → copied

try → tried

When a verb ends in a single vowel (a, e, i, o, u) and a single consonant, double the last consonant.

stop → stopped

prefer → preferred

most verbs	+ -ed	work - worked
verbs ending -e	+ -d	like - liked
verbs ending in consonant + y	y → i + -ed	try → tried
verbs ending in vowel + y ! except pay, lay, say	+ -ed y → i + d	play - played paid, laid, said
verbs ends vowel + consonant ! except if final syllable is not stressed	double consonant + ed	chat - chatted visit - visited verbs ends l ! North American English has one l	double l + ed	travel - travelled traveled